

House Resolution No. 3420

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Tilles Park Day, which will be celebrated Saturday, June 19, 2004, at St. Louis City's beautiful Tilles Park; and

Whereas, sponsored by St. Louis City's Tilles Park Neighborhood Association, Tilles Park Day will host the Honorable Francis G. Slay, Mayor of the City of St. Louis, who will serve as Master of Ceremonies; and

Whereas, Tilles Park Day will celebrate the dedication of Rosalie's Garden, named in honor of Rosalie Peck Tilles, with blessings by neighborhood clergy, Native American flute music, and words from St. Louis City Parks Commissioner Daniel W. Skillman; and

Whereas, the Colleen Sondermann Memorial Playground will also be dedicated in memory of the late Colleen Sondermann, 23rd Ward Alderwoman, with the unveiling of a Memorial Plaque; and

Whereas, the Playground and Picnic Gazebo Area will commemorate the resplendent occasion of its Tenth Anniversary with a special party featuring sweet encores cake, lemonade, music from the 1950s, and attendance prizes:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to all those dedicated individuals affiliated with the Tilles Park Neighborhood Association as they proudly celebrate Tilles Park Day on June 19, 2004; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation during Tilles Park Day.
